

Bellona's anniversary conference: The Future is Carbon Negative

08.30-08.55: Registration

09.00-09.05: Welcome and Introduction

09.05-09.45: The Future is Carbon Negative, Frederic Hauge, President Bellona Foundation

Europe and the US: The race towards a low or high carbon society

09.45-10.15: Hope or Illusion: California's role in US climate leadership, Carl Bauer, Special Advisor State of California and formerly Director of US NETL

10.15-10.30: Panel Discussion: The Bumpy Road to 2050. Who takes the lead?

10.30-11.00: Refreshments

To Bio or Not to Bio: Growing green and prosperous

11.00-11.10: Negative Equals Positive: The rationale behind carbon negative, Tone Knudsen, Deputy Director Bellona Europa

11.10-11.30: The Global Potential of Biomass with Carbon Capture and Storage, Dr Tim Dixon, Manager CCS and Regulatory Affairs IEAGHG

11.30-11.50: Using Nature's Genius in Architecture, Michael Pawlyn Director Exploration Architecture

11.50-12.30: Turning the Desert Green: Enabling Restorative Growth, Joakim Hauge (CEO and Director Sahara Forest Project), Kjetil Stake (Managing Director Sahara Forest Project), Jørgen Ole Haslestad (President and CEO Yara) and Frederic Hauge (President Bellona Foundation)

12.30-13.30: Lunch

13.30-13.35: Video from Larry Schweiger, President and Chief Executive Officer National Wildlife Federation

Financing Climate Market: The missing link

13.35-14.00: Casino or Climate Capitalism? James Cameron, Executive Director of Climate Change Capital

14.00-14.40: Panel discussion: Bottlenecks and Opportunities: Investing for a low carbon economy

14.40-15.00: Merging Climate Finance and Climate Challenges, Maria Otero, US Under Secretary of State for Democracy and Global Affairs

15.00-15.30: Refreshments

15.30-16.10: Turning Visions Into Reality, Lord John Prescott, UK Former Deputy Prime Minister and adviser to Chinese gov. on sustainable development

16.10-16.30: What a Difference a Day Makes, Frederic Hauge President Bellona Foundation

16.30: End